NOTABLE IN LEGAL ANNALS. A FAREWELL RECEPTION THE DR. WHITTEN CASE APPEALED

TO THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

The Hearing Before Judge Townsend Yesserday-Interesting Legal Complications -Dr. Whitten Bailed Under Five Thousand Dollar Bonds. The proceedings in the Dr. Whitten case were resumed before Judge Townsend in the United States court yes terday morning. It appears that the writ of habeas corpus, which was granted by the court late Wednesday Sheriff Tomlinson and consequently no reply had been prepared by Mr. Doolittle yesterday morning.

The case was adjourned until 18:15 'clock yesterday afternoon in order to eivs Mr. Doolittle time to reply. It was a matter of considerable surprise to he learned that the writ granted by Judge Townsend, admitting Dr. Whitten to bail, was not a temporary one for he had supposed that the cour would withdraw the writ yesterday morning and proceed with the hearing Judge Townsend stated that the writ would stand and that he desired to hear the case on its merits.

Mr. Doolittle then stated that the writ had not been served by the marshal, and he would need time to make a reply. After the adjournment of court the writ of babeas corpus was served upon Sheriff Tomlinson and his return made. This straightened mat-ters out. Attorney Baker filed a motion to quash the return and dismiss the Judge Townsend then gave a volunm inous decision, which stated that the United States court could not interfere with the case until the state Attorney Doollttle asked that the petitioner be remanded to the custody of the state court, but Attorney Baker filed notice of appeal to Judge Townsend's decision and claimed that the petitioner could not be remanded until the appeal was decided. Arguments were had upon this point.

After decision had been rendered by Judge Townsend, on motion of Attorney Baker, and despite the opposition of State Attorney Doolittle, an appeal was taken to the supreme court of the United States and Dr. Whitten remanded to the custody of Marshal Morris. He was subsequently released under $5,000 bonds, Lucius B. Hinman qualifying in that amount. This takes the case out of the jurisdiction of the state courts.

The appeal to the supreme court of United States court is taken, as stated by Attorney Baker, to pass upon the right of a state court to try a perwho is a citizen of another state and alleged to be a fugitive from justice for the crime of murder in the second degree, when he had never been, in fact, indicted by any grand fury and second as to whether a circuit court will hear a petition for habeas corpus in such a case before the state court has passed upon the matter when the petitioner alleges that ie is being deprived of his liberty without due process of law under article 1 of the fourteenth amendment of the onstitution and many others, hurch, of which the pastor at that time was the Rev. Joseph P. Thompson. After a residence of twelve years in New York Mr. Ensign was called to a professorship of music in the Maplewood Institute for Young Ladies at Pittsfield, Mass. There a pleasant home was found in that town, and Mrs. Ensign soon became well known and be oved by a large circle in the church of which the late Rev. Dr. John Todd was the pastor, Mr. Ensign filling the postion of organist and enjoying the clos est relations of friendship with the pas-tor and his family. The climate of western Massachusetts, however, was too rugged for Mrs. Ensign's delicate constitution, and in 1868 a trip to Europe, including a winter's sojourn in Dresden, was enjoyed by her in company with her husband. She keenly enjoyed the rare musical opportunities of Dresden, possessing in common with her husband rare musical tastes, and being gifted with a fine voice which was

EPWORTH M. E. CHURCH'S TRIBUTE TO THEIR PASTOR.

Handsome Gift to Rev. and Mrs. R. T. Cooper-Mr. C. B. Morse Tells of Rev. Mr. Cooper's Work From a Spiritual Standpoint-Testimonial From the Finance

At the Epworth M. E. church last evning a farewell reception was tendered to the pastor, Rev. Rufus T. Cooper. After a very efficient pastorate of three years Mr. Cooper will conclude his work afternoon, had not been served upon in New Haven next Sunday, although his next assignment will not be made until after the session of the New York East conference has ended, which will be the latter part of next week. The chapel was very prettily decorated with palms and potted plants. There was quite a noticeable sprinkling of Mr. Doolittle yesterday morning when people from other M. E. churches present. A very pleasing program of vocal and instrumental music was rendered under the direction of Mr. James F. Welch. After the company had partaken of a liberal allowance of cake and cream Caleb A. Morse, president of the board of trustees, made an excellent speech, reviewing the work of the pastor during the three years of his pastorate from a spiritual standpoint. As a testimonial of the high esteem in of the church presented to Mr. Cooper wo boxes of valuable silverware, Levi health, $114.

Haynes, secretary of the board of trustees, acting as spokesman. A beautiful bouquet of hyacinths and carnations was also presented to Mrs. Cooper. Mr. Cooper was also presented with a set of resolutions adopted by the board of trustees of the church Monday evening. The resolutions were embossed and handsomely framed and are as follows:

Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church, New Haven, Conn. At a regular meeting of the trustees of this church held Monday, March 25, 1895, the following resolutions were presented and adopted:

Whereas, Rev. Rufus T. Cooper, during the pastorate of three years just ending, obtained for the building fund of this church, by subscription, the sum of $25,206, of which sum $18,480.93 has been paid in to the treasury of the hurch to date, therefore be it Resolved, That we, the financial offi-cers of this church extend to the Rev.

R. T. Cooper our sincere thanks as slight testimonial of our appreciation of the earnest and successful efforts which he has put forth in our behalf. Resolved, That our best wishes for his success attend him to any new field of labor to which he may be assigned, And may he always have the protecting arm of the Father around him, comforting and sustaining him in any emergency that may arise. Signed: James E. Northrop, Treadwell Smith, James White, James Sharp, John Henderson, C. H. Morse, L. Hayne, E. P. Bement, trustees.

The reception was under the direction of Mr. James Welch, Miss Ella Shuster, Miss Mamie Island, and Mr. Edward Rogers furnished the music, while th Misses Elsie Bradley, Nellie Garvey, Tillie Isenbar, Lydia Lotts, Lillie Bris tol, Addie Sission, Florence Allison and Mrs. James Welch, Mrs. Hart assisted at the tables during the repast.

William Shortell Struck by a Freight Car and Dies Soon After.

William Shortell of 67 Minor street, who had charge of the cattle pens in the freight yard of the Consolidated road at Long Wharf, was run over and fatally injured at 10 o'clock yester day morning in the stock yard. He was at work cleaning the track near the stock pens when a stock car was being switched down the track. His back was turned to the approaching car and he dide not know of his dan-The car was moving slowly, mak ing very little noise, and this probably prevented Shortell hearing it.

He was knocked down by the bump ers and before he could get up the wheels of the stock car passed over his right leg, crushing it. He was also cut about the face and head. The hospital ambulance took the injured man to the hospital, but an hour after his arrival there he died. Shortell leaves a widow, who is in the Rerteat for the Insane at Middletown, also a son and a daughter. the accident occurred Shortell had $1,100 in bills in his pocket.

It is said that he is one of the oldest if not the oldest employe of the road in the freight yards in this city. He was fifty-five years of age.
